

PRIVACY NOTICE

This policy describes how Cresset collects, uses, and shares personal information when Cresset Providers provide services to clients. “Cresset” refers to Cresset Capital Management, LLC and its affiliates, including: Cresset Asset Management, LLC (“CAM”), a registered investment advisor that provides investment advisory, family office, and other services to individuals, families, and institutional clients; Cresset Partners, LLC (“CP”), a registered investment advisor that provides investment advisory services strictly to investment vehicles investing in private equity and real estate; and Cresset Trust Company, LLC (“CTC”), a South Dakota-chartered public trust company that provides trust services to clients. Cresset. CAM, CP, and CTC may be individually referred to as a “Cresset Provider” and collectively as the “Cresset Providers,” “we,” or “us.”

Any person or entity to whom a Cresset Provider provides or provided services or products is a “client.” Prospects who share personally identifiable information with a Cresset Provider are also treated as clients under the Privacy Notice.

INTRODUCTION

Financial companies choose how they share consumer’s personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some, but not all, sharing. Federal law also requires Cresset Providers to tell clients what we do with their personal information. This Policy describes how Cresset Providers collect, use, and protects client’s personal information when we provide services to clients and describes how Cresset collects and uses information when Users use the Website as well as Terms of use of the Website. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

COLLECTING INFORMATION

Cresset Providers collect personally identifiable information from clients in the course of providing services. The types of personal information collected and shared depend on the services / products provided to the client. Information can include, but is not necessarily limited to, name and date of birth, social security number, marital status, contact information, account numbers, transaction history, income, payment history, employment history, assets, investment experience, risk tolerance, and account information, retirement assets, estate planning information, and family information.

SHARING INFORMATION

Cresset Providers store, process, maintain, and use our clients’ personally identifiable information in order to provide clients support and services. Cresset Providers may share such information:

To complete transactions directed or authorized by the client or if requested by the client;

- To complete transactions directed or authorized by the client or if requested by the client;
- To provide services to the client;
- To contractors, vendors, and other third parties the Cresset Providers use to support their businesses and to provide services to clients, with those contractors, vendors, and third parties bound by contractual obligations to keep the information confidential and use it only for the purposes for which it was disclosed to them;
- As required by applicable law;

- In circumstances we believe it is necessary to investigate, prevent, or react to illegal activities, suspected fraud, or violations; and
- With affiliates (i.e., a company under common control with said Creset Provider) for their everyday business purposes if about clients' transactions and experiences.

Clients cannot limit the above sharing.

Creset Providers may share clients' information with affiliates so that they may market to the clients. If we do so, federal law gives clients the right to limit such sharing. (State laws may give clients additional rights to limit sharing.) Please contact compliance@cresetcapital.com to request to limit sharing.

Creset Providers do not jointly market with non-affiliates and do not share information with non-affiliates to market to clients, although a Creset Provider may refer clients to a non-affiliate who a client may contact at their discretion.

SECURITY

Creset Providers take commercially reasonable steps to protect clients' information from loss, misuse, unauthorized access, disclosure, or destruction in accordance with applicable law. No Internet, e-mail or electronic operating system is ever fully secure or error free, so please take care in deciding what information is provided to Creset Providers.

Please note that Creset Providers do not send emails to clients requesting billing, login, user ID or password information. If a client receives an email requesting personal or account information, login, or passwords purporting to be from a Creset Provider, we strongly advise clients to verify such communication is from a Creset Provider. We ask that clients report any suspicious communications to us.

Creset Providers take commercially reasonable steps to ensure that information remains secure when it is disposed of after it is no longer required to be maintained. Such steps shall include shredding paper documents and records prior to disposal, requiring off-site storage vendors to shred documents maintained in such locations prior to disposal, and destroying data contained on electronic media in such a manner that the Information can no longer be read or reconstructed.

MODIFICATIONS

We may, in our sole discretion, modify the Privacy Notice from time to time. If we make material modifications, we will notify all our clients as required by applicable law.

CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS

For Users who are California residents, California law may provide Users with additional rights regarding use of their personal information.

This PRIVACY NOTICE FOR CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS supplements information contained in the Privacy Policy of Cresset and applies solely to visitors, users, and others who reside in the State of California (“consumers” or “you”). “Cresset” refers to Cresset Capital Management, LLC and its affiliates, including: Cresset Asset Management, LLC, a registered investment advisor that provides investment advisory, family office, and other services to individuals, families, and institutional clients; Cresset Partners, LLC, a registered investment advisor that provides investment advisory services strictly to investment vehicles investing in private equity and real estate; and Cresset Trust Company, LLC, a South Dakota-chartered public trust company that provides trust services to clients. Cresset may also be referred to as “we.”

We adopt this notice to comply with the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (“CCPA”) and other California privacy laws. Any terms defined in the CCPA have the same meaning when used in this notice.

Personal information does not include:

- Publicly available information from government records.
- De-identified or aggregated consumer information.
- Information excluded from the CCPA's scope, such as: health or medical information covered by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) and the California

Confidentiality of Medical Information Act (CMIA) or clinical trial data; and personal information covered by certain sector-specific privacy laws, including the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FRCA), the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA) or California Financial Information Privacy Act (FIPA), and the Driver's Privacy Protection Act of 1994.

We obtain the categories of personal information listed above from the following categories of sources:

- Directly from our clients or their agents. For example, from documents that our clients provide to us related to the services for which they engage us.
- Indirectly from our clients or their agents. For example, through information we collect from our clients in the course of providing services to them.
- Directly and indirectly from activity on our websites <https://cressetcapital.com/>, and <https://cressetpartners.com/>. For example, from submissions through our website portal or website usage details collected automatically.
- From third parties that interact with us in connection with the services we perform.

USE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

We may use or disclose the personal information we collect for one or more of the following business purposes:

- To provide you with information, products or services that you request from us.
- To fulfill or meet the reason for which the information is provided.
- To provide you with email alerts, event registrations, and other notices concerning us that may be of interest to you.
- To carry out our obligations and enforce our rights arising from any contracts entered into between you and us, including for billing and collections.
- To improve our website and present its contents to you.
- For testing, research, analysis and product / service development.
- As necessary or appropriate to protect the rights, property, or safety of us, our clients or others.
- To respond to law enforcement requests and as required by applicable law, court order, or governmental regulations.
- As described to you when collecting your personal information or as otherwise set forth in the CCPA.
- To evaluate or conduct a merger, divestiture, restructuring, reorganization, dissolution, or other sale or transfer of some or all of our assets, whether as a going concern or as part of bankruptcy, liquidation, or similar proceeding, in which personal information held by us is among the assets transferred.

We will not collect additional categories of personal information or use the personal information we collected for materially different, unrelated, or incompatible purposes without providing you notice.

SHARING PERSONAL INFORMATION

We may disclose your personal information to a third party for a business purpose. When we disclose personal information for a business purpose, we enter a contract that describes the purpose and requires the recipient to both keep that personal information confidential and not use it for any purpose except performing the contract.

In the preceding twelve (12) months, we have disclosed the following categories of personal information for a business purpose:

Category A: Identifiers.

Category B: California Customer Records personal information categories.

Category C: Protected classification characteristics under California or federal law.

Category I: Professional or employment-related information.

We disclose your personal information for a business purpose to the following categories of third parties:

- Our affiliates.
- Service providers.
- Third parties to whom you or your agents authorize us to disclose your personal information in connection with products or services we provide to you.

CRESSET DOES NOT SELL PERSONAL INFORMATION. IN THE PRECEDING TWELVE (12) MONTHS, WE HAVE NOT SOLD ANY PERSONAL INFORMATION.

YOUR RIGHTS AND CHOICES

The CCPA provides consumers (California residents) with specific rights regarding their personal information. This section describes your CCPA rights and explains how to exercise those rights.

Access to Specific Information and Data Portability Rights: You have the right to request that we disclose certain information to you about our collection and use of your personal information over the past 12 months. Once we receive and confirm your verifiable request, we will disclose to you:

- The categories of personal information we collected about you.

- The categories of sources for the personal information we collected about you.
- Our business or commercial purpose for collecting or selling that personal information.
- The categories of third parties with whom we share that personal information.
- The specific pieces of personal information we collected about you (also called a data portability request).

Deletion Request Rights. You have the right to request that we delete any of your personal information that we collected from you and retained, subject to certain exceptions. Once we receive and confirm your verifiable request, we will delete (and direct our service providers to delete) your personal information from our records unless an exception applies.

Please note that we may deny your deletion request if retaining the information is necessary for us or our service providers to:

- Complete the transaction for which we collected the personal information, provide a service that you requested, take actions reasonably anticipated within the context of our ongoing business relationship with you, or otherwise perform our contract with you.
- Detect security incidents, protect against malicious, deceptive, fraudulent, or illegal activity, or prosecute those responsible for such activities.
- Debug products to identify and repair errors that impair existing intended functionality.
- Exercise free speech, ensure the right of another to exercise their free speech rights, or exercise another right provided for by law.
- Comply with the California Electronic Communications Privacy Act (Cal. Penal Code § 1546 seq.).
- Enable solely internal uses that are reasonably aligned with your expectations based on your relationship with us.
- Comply with a legal obligation.
- Make other internal and lawful uses of that information that are compatible with the context in which you provided it.

Exercising Access, Data Portability, and Deletion Rights: To exercise the access, data portability, and deletion rights described above, please submit a verifiable consumer request to us at the mail address or email address noted below.

Only you or a person registered with the California Secretary of State that you authorize to act on your behalf, may make a verifiable consumer request related to your personal information. You may also make a verifiable consumer request on behalf of your minor child. You may only submit a request for access or data portability twice within a 12-month period. Such request must (a) provide sufficient information that allows us to reasonably verify the person about whom we collected personal information or an authorized representative of the same, and (b) describe your request with sufficient detail that allows us to understand, evaluate, and respond to the request.

Please note that we cannot respond to requests or provide you with personal information if we cannot verify your identity or authority to make the request and confirm the personal information relates to you. Cresset will only use personal information provided in the request to verify the requestor's identity or authority to make it. Making a verifiable consumer request does not require you to be a client or investor with us.

Response Time and Format: We endeavor to substantively respond to a verifiable California consumer request within forty-five (45) days of its receipt. If we require more time (up to another 45 days), Cresset will inform you of the reason and extension period in writing.

If you are a client or investor of ours, we will deliver our written response electronically (or mail if you have opted out of electronic delivery). If you are not a client or investor of ours, we will deliver our written response electronically or mail. Please note that any disclosures we provide will only cover the 12-month period preceding our receipt of the verifiable request. The response we provide will also explain the reasons we cannot comply with a request, if applicable. For data portability requests, we will select a format to provide your personal information that is readily useable and should allow you to transmit the information from one entity to another entity without hindrance.

We do not charge a fee to process or respond to verifiable request unless it is excessive, repetitive, or manifestly unfounded. If we determine that the request warrants a fee, we will tell you why we made that decision and provide you with a cost estimate before completing the request.

NON-DISCRIMINATION

We will not discriminate against you for exercising any of your CCPA rights. Unless permitted by the CCPA, we will not (a) deny California consumers goods or services, (b) charge California consumers different prices or rates for goods or services, including through granting discounts or other benefits, or imposing penalties, (c) provide California consumers with different level or quality of goods or services, or (d) suggest that California consumers may receive a different price or rate for goods or services or a different level or quality of goods or services.

However, Cresset may offer Californians certain financial incentives permitted by the CCPA that can result in different prices, rates, or quality levels. Participation in a financial incentive program requires CA Individual's prior opt-in consent, which may be revoked at any time.

OTHER CALIFORNIA PRIVACY RIGHTS

California's "Shine the Light" law (Civil Code Section § 1798.83) permits Users of Website that are California residents to request certain information regarding our disclosure of personal information to third parties for their direct marketing purposes. To make such a request, please send an email using contact information provided in this Policy.

CHANGES TO OUR PRIVACY NOTICE

We reserve the right to amend this privacy notice at our discretion and at any time. When we make changes to this privacy notice, we will notify you by email or through a notice on our website homepage.
